A Streetcar Named Desire:
Character Analysis of Stanley Kowalski or Blanche DuBois

Student Name: __________________________

Character Name: __________________________

Scene(s) Analyzed Today: ___________ Date: __________________________

Write four adjectives that describe this character.

___________________________________  ____________________________________

___________________________________  ____________________________________

Describe some of the things this character does in this/these scene(s) that show us what type of person he/she is.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What does this character’s objective appear to be in this/these scene(s)?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Do you like/sympathize with him/her at this point in the play? Why or why not?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________